WGLT-AM began broadcasting a closed-circuit radio service to the students in the dormitories at Illinois State University in 1962. A source of information and entertainment on the campus, WGLT-AM is student-managed and student staffed. WGLT-AM offers experience and training in broadcast techniques and strives to develop in the staff and among the listeners an appreciation of this vital medium of communication that has come to play such a major role in our lives.

WGLT-FM, a duly licensed 10 Watt educational FM broadcast facility, is an extension of radio service to the students in off-campus housing and all residents of the Blooming-Normal community.

WGLT-AM and FM will be on the air only when the University is in session during the regular school year. There will be no broadcasts during extended holidays—Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring vacation, and the Summer months.

A Statement of Purpose

WGLT-AM and FM, a radio broadcasting facility of Illinois State University, exists as a training ground in broadcasting techniques and as a medium of communication between the University and the Student Body as well as between the University and the Community. The programs broadcast are designed to meet the information and entertainment needs of all listeners with an educational orientation in order to stimulate intellectual and cultural growth.

A Statement of Policy

In all WGLT-AM and FM programming we shall endeavor to reflect and emphasise the educational values of program content. To the responsibilities of propriety and good taste we add the educational responsibilities pertinent to a university serving the public. In an effort to avoid direct duplication of services available through commercial stations, we shall give some emphasis to types of music and informative subject matter not frequently heard on other stations but appropriately associated with the standards of intellect and culture of an institution of higher learning.

WGLT-AM and FM, in keeping with the educational FM license, shall furnish a non-profit and non-commercial broadcast service.

WGLT-AM and FM intends to serve both the University and the Community. We are happy to make time available for objective and articulate discussion of issues vital to all of us as individuals and as fellow-citizens. We ask only that all who wish to use our facilities for such purposes cooperate with us in assuring objectivity, articulate expression of ideas, and fair and equal opportunity for a variety of opinions to be aired.

We wish to present religious and political subject matter in objective and informative programs, avoiding denominational appeals and direct campaigning.

Public service announcements of educational or cultural significance sponsored by the Community and Community organizations as well as those sponsored by the University will be aired on WGLT-AM and FM. We request that you submit information or copy for such announcements to:

*Continuity and Promotion Director
WGLT-AM and FM
Illinois State University
Normal, Illinois 61761*

Please allow us 48 hours to process the copy and schedule the announcements. We reserve the right to select that material we believe to be most suited to our purpose and policies.

Our Program Schedule

. . . is designed to appeal to and meet the needs of a variety of audiences at what we believe to be convenient times.

Following an hour of dinner music from 5 to 6 P.M., Monday through Friday, we present information of interest to the entire Community.

Light, entertaining music is next on the schedule for your early evening relaxation and enjoyment with 5-minutes of news at 8 P.M.

Music-lovers—or “long-hairs” if you wish—will enjoy a full 1-hour and 55-minute concert mid-evening from 8:05 to 10:00.

After full coverage of news, weather, and sports at 10 P.M., light music and discussion programs will be aired on alternate evenings.

At 11 P.M. WGLT-AM and FM presents programming designed primarily for I.S.U. students in off-campus housing as well as in the dormitories. Popular music with announcements of special concern to the students continue until sign-off.

Saturday and Sunday we begin programming at 6 P.M. with music from Broadway and Hollywood. The weekend emphasis is on music—from the “classics” to popular—with news at 8, 10, and 12 midnight and student-oriented programming after 11 P.M.

Program Notes

Informative programs include news at 6, 8, 10 and 12 midnight. To the United Press International teletype service coverage of national and international news we add student coverage of campus and local events, local weather forecasts, and sports coverage.

At 6:15 P.M. each Tuesday and Thursday a calendar of local educational and cultural events with appropriate promotion and comments is featured in a program format including light music.

A variety of musical and informative programming from other lands is incorporated in the schedule. These programs are made available through the broadcast services of different countries and through the Broadcasting Foundation of America. The title "ISU Presents" (6:30 P.M., Wednesday and 8:05 P.M., Sunday) is an attempt to indicate a variety of educational and cultural subject matter including discussion, commentary, and lectures as well as "performances" by students and faculty of the University.

Two programs that have been popular with the students and on which many residents of the community have, in the past, discussed issues with the University staff and students for the dormitory audience are "Bull Session" and "Forum". These programs are now heard by our FM audience at 10:15 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Entertainment programs include a variety of music scheduled in segments or blocks of time for the general audience as well as audiences with specific interests.

Concert or "classical" music from 8:05 to 10 each evening, Monday through Friday, features recordings from our own library plus special programs and program series made available to educational stations from our own country as well as other countries around the world.

Programs of lighter "classical" music—shorter, more well-known and popular works—are heard at 10:15 Wednesday, 8:05 Saturday, and 10:10 Sunday evenings. Some choral and religious music is included in "Sunday Classics" at 8:30 P.M.

Each evening, seven days per week, from 11 to sign-off the sounds of "Night Flight"—music, announcements, features—are designed for student listeners both off-campus and in the dormitories.

As WGLT-FM joins WGLT-AM to present a broadcast service for a community-wide audience, our goals are to expand the training and experience offered to our students in all phases of broadcasting and to give both the Public and the University a variety of non-commercial educational programming.

We salute . . .

*WJBC-AM and FM
Bloomington, Illinois*

WJBC moved to Bloomington-Normal in 1934 from LaSalle, Illinois, where it began operations in 1925. The first WJBC studios here were on the top floor of Cook Hall, the present location of WGLT, and since the beginning of broadcasting here the Station and the University have enjoyed a cooperative spirit of service to this community. WJBC-FM offers listeners fine music programming with network news.

WIOK

Normal, Illinois

On September 20, 1965, WIOK celebrated the third anniversary of broadcasting in Bloomington-Normal. The past year has been one of expansion for WIOK with new management, new studios, night-time programming, and an all new program format including good music and increased public service to the community.

We thank . . .

both local stations for their cooperation with and many excellent services rendered for Illinois State University.

WGLT-AM and FM will be on the air only when the University is in session during the regular school year. There will be no broadcasts during extended holidays—Thanks-giving, Christmas, Spring vacation, and the Summer months.
